DESPAIRED OF HIS COUNTRY.—The following generous article from the New York Times, a determined political opponent of its subject, reflects credit on the journal and atones for many of its political offences.
The suicide of Hon. Elijah Hise, member of Congress from Kentucky, seems to have been attended with circumstances and prompted by motives which make it peculiarly melancholy. He is said to have left a note stating that in the present condition of public affairs, his advanced age rendered him powerless to do any good, and he preferred not to make the attempt. Mr. Hise held a seat during the last session of the thirty-ninth Congress, having been chosen to fill a vacancy. He took a warm interest in the action of the House, and spoke several times on the subject of debate—the restoration of the Union. His views, being those of the old State Rights school, were received with contempt as well as disfavor by the exultant and somewhat arrogant Republican majority—and this was extended, it must to their discredit be added, to his style of speaking—which was slow, measured and altogether too serious and sincere for the flippant tone and temper of the House. Mr. Hise was a short, stout man, of dark complexion, with iron-grey hair brushed back from his forehead, a handsome earnest face which bore the marks of the deep, sad concern which he felt to his heart's core for the condition and prospects of the country. He had a clear logical mind and always made speeches well worthy of a degree of attention which was seldom given them in that House. On one occasion, during a night session, when he was brought in long after midnight under a call from the House, he proceeded to say that he was wearied by the long session and greatly depressed in spirit by the tone of the debates and what seemed to him the sad condition of public affairs; and, feeling that he could be of no service there, he had yielded to this depression and gone home. Quite incapable of believing such declarations sincere and entitled to respect, the members were inclined to regard them as insulting to the dignity of the House, and demands were made that they should be re-sented and punished.

Conscious of his own perfect sincerity, Mr. Hise was utterly bewildered by this reception of what he had said—but after a little time he proceeded, while disavowing any such thought or purpose as was imputed to him, to explain and vindicate what he had said; and this he did with so much dignity, that even the scoffing railers who had assailed him were forced into silence and respect. He was a man of the greatest possible sincerity—of fine talents, an accomplished and successful lawyer, and held in the highest personal esteem by all who knew him.

FIDELITY OF MR. DAVIS'S SERVANTS.—Married, on Tuesday night, May 7th, at Fortress Monroe, Carroll Hall, by the Rev. O. S. Barton, Rector of Christ Church, Norfolk, Frederick McINNIS to ELLEN BARNES. The above leaves more than a passing notice. It is not often, in these days, that we witness such faithfulness and devotion on the part of servants. Both parties belonged to Mr. Davis's household, and have shared with him and his family their long protracted imprisonment. They were his servants in Richmond, and have remained true and devoted to him through good and evil report. When, after the evacuation of Richmond, the family were compelled to move Southward, Ellen could not be persuaded to leave them, but faithfully shared with them the toil and suffering of those fearful days. When, after Mr. Davis's capture and his removal to the Fortress, his anxious, almost distracted wife was waiting for tidings from him who, by the chances of war had been thus cruelly torn from her side, Frederick, ever faithful and true, sought her, and ministering to her wants. When told that the slender means of the fallen family would never permit such an expenditure, his services were offered freely and gladly, without reward or remuneration. When, at last, arrangements were made and means provided for him and he found himself within the Fortress, a part of his wages were carefully laid aside, and have been regularly sent home to South Carolina to his old mistress, (like many others, impoverished by the war,) who, in his own words, had been as good to him, and whom he loved as a mother. A like faithfulness and liberality must be recorded of Ellen.

KNOW THY DESTINY.—MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrist, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N.Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychometrop, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can attest.—She will send, when desired, a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communications sacredly confidential. Address, in confidence, Madame E. F. Thornton, P. O. Box 222 Hudson, N. Y. mh 22-ly

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruddy complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the outside it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful.—Price $1, sent by Mail or Express, on receipt of an order by W. L. CLARK & Co., Chemists, No. 3, West Fayette st., Syracuse, N. Y. The only American Agents for the sale of the same. mh 12-ly

WONDERFUL, BUT TRUE!—MADAME REMINGTON, the world-renowned Astrologist and Somnambulist Clairvoyant, while in a clairvoyant state, delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychometrop, guarantees to produce a perfect life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, with date of marriage, occupation, leading traits of character, &c. This is no imposition, as testimonials without number can attest. By stating place of birth, age, disposition, color of eyes and hair, and enclosing fifty cents, and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture by return mail, together with desired information. Address, in confidence, MADAME GERTRUDE REMINGTON, P. O. Box 297, West Troy, New York. mh 12-ly

ASTROLOGY.
THE WORLD ASTONISHED At the wonderful revelations made by the Great Astrologist, MADAME H. A. FERRIGO. She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relatives and friends, loss of money, &c., have come despairing. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue, and in what way you will succeed. She tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the real features that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of each. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the date of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair, N. Y. Address, MADAME H. A. FERRIGO, ap 10-ly P. O. Drawer 296, Buffalo, N. Y.

A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are you to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations do not keep a second or third, and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. Address: W. L. CLARK & CO., Chemists, No. 3, West Fayette st., SYRACUSE, N. Y. ap 8-1y
